⭐⭐⭐⭐⭐ I highly recommend Jared Gibbons to anyone looking for a realtor who truly goes above and beyond for his clients. Jared provides exceptional service, has great taste, and has an incredible eye for finding the right properties to match his clients' needs and preferences. What really sets him apart, though, is his genuine consideration for the people he works with. He takes the time to listen, understand, and make sure his clients feel valued throughout the entire process. What I appreciate most about Jared is that he understands the human side of real estate. For him, it's not just about properties, transactions, or making a sale. It's about people, their lives, their needs, and helping them find a place they can truly call home. If you're looking for a realtor who combines professionalism, excellent taste, integrity, and genuine care for his clients, Jared Gibbons is someone I would absolutely recommend.

We had an excellent experience working with Jared. From the very beginning, he took the time to really listen to what we were looking for and helped us find homes that matched both our needs and our lifestyle. He was always mindful of our budget and never tried to push us beyond what we were comfortable with. What we appreciated most was that there was never any pressure. He provided honest advice and guidance, but always allowed us to come to our own decisions. Throughout both the buying and selling process, he was incredibly responsive, answering questions quickly and helping us navigate every step with confidence. Buying and selling a home can be stressful, but he made the entire experience feel manageable and smooth. We always felt supported, informed, and valued as clients. We would highly recommend him to anyone looking for a knowledgeable, professional, and genuinely caring realtor.

Working with Jared on a condo transaction was exactly the kind of experience that reminds you why collaboration in this industry can be so rewarding. He represented the listing side, and I represented the buyer. His listing was well-presented and priced sharply, which made all the difference in today's market. From start to finish, he was communicative, professional, and genuinely easy to work with. What stood out most was his balance — just the right amount of follow-up without ever feeling pushy, and a response rate that made the whole process feel effortless. Any request was actioned quickly, and he showed up on time, every time. His professionalism and integrity were evident throughout, and the negotiation felt collaborative rather than combative. I wish every transaction was as smooth as this one.

As first-time home buyers, we are so grateful we had Jared guiding us every step of the way. He was always quick to respond to texts, emails, and questions. Jared was happy to show us many listings, even when it meant meeting us farther away. He really took the time to understand what type of home would best suit our family's needs. What stood out most was how proactive and dedicated he was. We had fallen in love with a home that already had an accepted offer, but he stayed on top of it and followed up consistently. When that deal fell through, because of his quick action we got an immediate showing-and ended up getting the house! Overall, his communication, negotiation, professionalism and support was fantastic. We would absolutely recommend him to anyone!

We had a great experience working with Jared. A family member from Vancouver Island recommended that we reach out to him to help us buy our first home in Port Coquitlam. From the moment we met Jared to finalizing the home purchase, we felt confident in Jared’s abilities and professionalism to guide us every step of the way. Jared is very approachable and always had an answer to any questions that came up, even if it required a little digging; we could count on him to investigate and follow up. Jared is very knowledgeable to point out little quirks within units that we were viewing that we would have otherwise not noticed. Additionally, Jared is very knowledgeable on the contract side of things. You can count on him to word the contract to benefit you, which helps a lot for negotiating price. Before any contract modifications were made, Jared would always check-in with us to ensure we were okay with the change and that our needs were being prioritized. Jared also has a vast inventory of industry connections to facilitate your home purchase or disposition process, whether it may be a recommendation for a building inspector, electrician, plumber, mechanical, etc. – you can count on him to support you through this process. We felt that Jared went above and beyond for us during our first home purchase process and recommend him!

Jared is a dream realtor. He spent lots of time helping me find my first home (a beautiful condo) in 2021 and in 2025 helped me sell the condo in a matter of days as my husband and I purchased our first home together (an incredible row home). He goes above and beyond to help his clients see things with an open mind, find bonuses and pitfalls that might otherwise go unnoticed, and won’t rest until his clients find something that they love. He does all the work to set up everything from cleaning, inspection, insurance, and has names on hand for any issues that come up in the future. He checks in to ensure that any issues big or small have been resolved and followed up with and does everything he can to help your new house feel like a home the moment you take possession. I cannot recommend him enough!

The Best Realtor Experience I have Ever Had! Working with Jared was a dream. From the very first meeting to the final closing, he went above and beyond every step of the way. Jared's professionalism, knowledge of the market, and genuine care was exactly what you would want for a realtor. Jared took the time to truly understand what I was looking for and made the entire process feel seamless and stress-free. Every question I had—big or small—was answered with patience and insight. He is always incredibly responsive, always one step ahead, and fought for me during negotiations like it was his own home. Thanks to Jared expertise, I found the perfect home and closed under great terms. It’s rare to find someone who is not only amazing at their job but also kind, trustworthy, and sincerely invested in your happiness. If you’re buying or selling a home, stop searching—Jared is the one you want by your side. Thank you, Jared, for making this such a positive and memorable journey. I couldn't be more grateful.

First time home buyer. Jared came recommended and I can see why. Helped me and my family find a home we really loved and got us a good price. I felt like I had someone who was on my side the entire process and told it like it was. Very genuine. He helped out with a gift card after we moved in and continues to check in after the sale was completed. Highly recommend.

Jared was great, he made the process so seamless. As first time home buyers, he walked us through the whole process and made himself available however and whenever we had questions and we would definitely recommended Jared for anyone looking for their home!

HR · ★★★★★ · a year ago

As a first time home buyer, it was hard to know where to begin. Luckily, a family friend recommended Jared and I am so grateful that he did. Authentic customer service and relationship building is not something you see a lot of anymore but Jared takes it to another level. It is so refreshing and reassuring to know that there are genuine people out there that love what they do and make it a priority to help others navigate the complexities of real estate. Jared makes a point to get to know you in order to help you find what you want and what you need. He helps you read between the lines of listings and takes the time to explain things fully so that you understand and are comfortable every step of the way. He truly is amazing at what he does and goes above and beyond for his clients; he really listens to you and encourages you to ask questions. His work ethic is exceptional and he goes further than just helping you find a place, he also helps you turn it into home. Lastly, he surrounds himself with people who share his approach, so when you choose Jared you also get the benefit of his connections, which makes things so much easier, especially when those people are just as supportive and amazing at what they do as well. There are a lot of agents out there but I honestly feel that working with Jared is a unique experience as he genuinely looks out for you and your interests by cultivating relationships built on trust. If I could give more than 5 stars I would but this lengthy review will have to suffice. Ultimately, any agent can help you find a place, but if you are looking for someone you can trust and who will look out for your best interests every step of the way , you won't find anyone better than Jared Gibbons.

It was a great experience working with Jared over the past couple weeks. I was a first time home buyer and his confidence and expertise made the whole process a lot less daunting and honestly quite easy, and saved some money along the way. I'm sure I had some rookie questions but he was available by phone or text or email immediately every time with the answer. We made quick work of the viewings, offers and closing and he crushed it every step of the way. Even before getting the keys he had me set up with some recommendations for some contractors and some upgrades and went above and beyond tracking everyone down. Overall, Jared made it a nice and easy experience. 10/10 would recommend. Don't waste your time with anyone else.

My wife and I recently sold our home in Ladner through Jared Gibbons Realty. Jared had been highly recommended as someone who was extremely good at his business and would provide us with the best service and advice available. We knew we were going into a difficult market for sellers and so were a little apprehensive at retaining someone we had never heard of before but those concerns were soon alleviated. Jared was the consummate professional as he advised us on what to expect and how to get the best price the tight market would support and skillfully guided us through the maze of paperwork.The services he provided to market our home went way beyond what we had expected. He immediately arranged for a professional home sales cleaning crew to totally clean and polish the inside of our 45 year old home so that it shone. Then he brought in a yard crew who did the same for the yard and the exterior of the house. He then arranged a full photographic presentation of the place, inside and out and even from above with a drone, incorporating that into a beautiful brochure that listed the selling features of our home. And all of this was provided at Jared's considerable expense, not ours. We really appreciated the assistance he provided in reaching a listing price that met our needs and expectations while at the same time recognizing that we were in a dropping market. Once all this preparatory work was complete showings, both open and private, began immediately and continued several times a week under the professional guidance of Jared's colleagues Tyler and Pam. His assistant Hernando kept us regularly updated on what was going on in the local real estate market and it never took more than a couple hours at the most for Jared or one of the others to return our phone calls.They kept us informed on the reactions they were getting to the property as soon as each visit ended. Their calm confidence in the features and value of our home and the eventual outcome provided much needed reassurance in the sluggish market and when we did get an offer Jared's negotiation of the outcome was masterful, getting us a selling price that we were extremely pleased with. Once the deal was complete Jared and team made all the necessary arrangements to retain the legal/notarial work necessary to close the deal. Selling the home you built on a vacant lot 45 years ago and raised your family in is a difficult time. Jared and his team really were a pleasure to work with throughout a very stressful time and we can't recommend him highly enough.

My husband and I sought out Jared and his team, as we knew they had years of experience selling properties within the Langley/South Surrey/White Rock area and they came greatly recommended. Listing our condo with Jared and Tyler was an incredibly easy and seamless process, in which we had such a positive experience. Within 30 minutes of listing, they had already scheduled a showing for later that day and we received an offer that we were incredibly happy about, well over listing price. Jared and Tyler were there for us any time of the day or night and always easy to get ahold of. Their passion and expertise eased a lot of our stress about selling and buying. They also worked tirelessly to send us daily listings and took us for showings, in which they found our dream home and guided us every step of the way to make our new purchase a reality! Their knowledge of properties within the South Surrey/ White Rock area, in which we were looking for a new place, was invaluable when looking for a new place to call home. I can’t thank them enough for all of their expertise, support and commitment to helping us through this process. Within two weeks, we had sold our condo and purchased our new place due to all of their hard work and competence in navigating the real estate world. Both Jared and Tyler are down to earth, incredibly easy to work with, and paid great attention to detail in helping us look for a new home. They both made us feel heard every step of the way in our wants and our needs and worked tirelessly to achieve and obtain all of those for us. We will miss our daily communication with them and can’t thank them enough for a very positive experience! They say selling and purchasing a new home is one of the most stressful experiences one may go through in their lifetime, however, this was not the case for us and I wholeheartedly believe that it was because of Jared and Tyler’s expertise and commitment that this process was anything but stressful for us. I would recommend Jared and his team to anyone!

Jared and Pam were great to deal with throughout our real estate journey. Jared represented us first as a buyer’s agent and helped us find our ideal home and most recently helped us in the sale of our townhome. He was knowledgeable, flexible and easy to communicate with. It helped that he listened to our needs and was patient with our timeline so we never felt pressured to make a move we weren’t totally comfortable with or committed to. Jared ensured we received exactly what we were looking for in our sale. Pam kept us on track with paperwork, sent helpful reminder emails and forwarded lists to help in the organization of our sale as well as our move. She was always friendly and personable! We were so thankful to work with them both, thanks Jared & Pam!

We recently worked with Jared in the sale of our South Surrey home. Not only was Jared thorough, professional and great to work with, but he also seems to really care about his clients. He works very fast, and is extremely driven to get you the best offer. He made the process smooth and stress free - he handled everything so that we could focus on our upcoming relocation. My husband and I seriously are wondering if he ever sleeps - that's how on the ball he is, whenever we call, email or text. Jared also seems to have a sixth sense about the market when it comes to timing, price, etc. He knows what he is doing - we highly recommend him!

Jared is a great realtor. We've used his services to buy and sell 3 different homes. He really knows his stuff. We've always found him to be conscientious, kind, and professional. We are happy to recommend him to our family and friends. We wouldn't use anybody else.

Jared is an outstanding realtor and person. His knowledge of the market far surpasses anyone I have come in contact with. More than this, he prioritizes your purchase like it’s his own, going above and beyond to find a home that works for you. I was blown away by his hard work, dedication, and professionalism. I simply don’t think there’s a better realtor in the Fraser Valley and I would recommend him to everyone.

Jared is a great guy. He stands out as an honest, hard working professional in an industry where good people are hard to find. We’ve bought and sold a few places with him. He may be younger, but he knows the industry very well and will look after you very well. What I really like is he is hands on and does everything himself versus relying on a team with no one on one service.
